- For Adults 18 yrs. & Older -

Wednesday, October 4, 2017 7:30-9:00 pm

Public Safety Building
91 Union Street
Medford, NJ 08055

Sponsored by the Medford Municipal Alliance & Neighborhood Services Advisory Committee.

This is a FREE workshop. Registration is NOT required.

This interactive course provides information and strategies for helping someone with an addiction issue. Intended for family members and those with someone with an addiction issue, this course provides information on the impact of addiction on the individual and the three areas of life it impacts. Learn what immediate and longer-term steps can be taken to assist you in becoming more effective and successful in helping someone you care about. Learn about the self-help addictions community, the treatment process, and gain resources to assist you in regaining balance in your life while supporting someone else's recovery.

We are pleased to provide this vital information to aid you and your family in this FREE community education session. Focused on families, parents and loved ones, this session provides a supportive place to discuss and learn about addictions, and the drug use impacting you and your community.
